

Education Program Priority Pyramid

Positive Youth Development (PYD) and Life Skills Development occur at all levels of this model. The main message of this model is for program focus and priority to be on education, not competition. In order for a land-grant university to be involved with this activity education must be the foundation of the program.

